GROUNDS OF APPEAL

(Please use a separate page for any or all responses if necessary)

(a) The grounds of appeal.
(Under this head you should attempt to set out briefly the main reasons why you consider that the decision is wrong. Use short numbered paragraphs to separate different points)

(b) The findings of fact of the Scottish Ministers which are challenged.
(Set out by quoting findings in full or by reference to numbering shown in the Report if you are satisfied this is clear and unambiguous.)

(c) Any facts which the appellant seeks to rely on in addition to those set out in the Report.
(These should be set out in short separate numbered paragraphs)

(d) The arguments to be advanced in support of the appeal.
(You will not need to complete this part if you think that you have covered all the ground in your statement of grounds of appeal at (a) above. But you may wish to set out a separate statement of reasons)

(e) Brief details of the legislative provisions or judicial authorities to be referred to in relation to the appeal.

Productions

1. The initial decision letter
2. The application for review which you sent to Scottish Ministers.
3. The letter offering you a hearing
4. The written report

(Please ensure that you have attached copies of all the above if you have them)
